

Earthenware Mark E11

The OPAQUE CHINA mark was impressed in addition to marks E6b or E12 from about the 1840s. Very occasionally the mark appears upside down or at an odd angle. This mark was used on a large range of dinner and toilet wares.

Mark	Date	Frequency
Impressed	1840s-1870s	common

Please report any examples (with photos) of dates before 1844 and after 1870.

