

Porcelain Mark P1

This is the earliest and rarest of the porcelain marks. It was hand painted in red. The best known examples of its use are items from the Royal Order of 1806-7 and a similar plate is illustrated below. Note the lack of a bar on the anchor.

Colour

red

blue

Date

c1806-1815

c1814

Frequency

very rare

very rare

A plate commemorating the 'Peace Of Europe' signed in Paris in 1814 is painted lower case in blue, and has a bar on the anchor.

